

An innovative launching platform to inspire and empower Loudoun homeowners associations, their managers and landscapers to adopt environmentally and economically sustainable landscaping practices for healthier communities.

FREE

Thursday, October 11, 5pm-9pm

HOA FORUM

COMMON SPACE FOR THE GREATER GOOD: PRACTICAL STEPS FOR HEALTHIER LANDSCAPING

ALGONKIAN REGIONAL PARK WOODLANDS CONFERENCE CENTER 47001 FAIRWAY DR., STERLING, VA 20165

Join us!

If you are an HOA board member, property manager, landscaper, or a resident who wants to explore the latest environmentally and economically sustainable landscaping methods.

5-6pm
Arrivals & Exhibits

6-7:15
Basics of Natives and Invasives

7:15 -9:00
HOA panelists and discussion

FOOD WILL BE PROVIDED

BASICS OF NATIVES AND INVASIVES

Get the facts on why HOAs are encouraged to consider healthier landscaping practices.

CASE STUDIES AND EXAMPLES

HOA representatives will talk about their work, lessons learned and answer questions from the audience.

LOCAL RESOURCES

Connect with representatives of local groups that are prepared to help.

PHOTO: MAGEE DESIGN

For more information or to register visit: pecva.org/forum

For questions contact Gem Bingol at gbingol@pecva.org

Hosted by:

NoVA PRISM
Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management

